

11-5: Volume of Pyramids and Cones

$$V = \frac{1}{3} \cdot B \cdot h$$

The Volume is one-third of the product of the base area and the height!

Remember: B is the AREA of the base.
h must be the perpendicular height of the entire solid

